People and Planet Positive

Making a positive difference to people and the planet is at the heart of everything we do.

We're integrating sustainability into all of our decision-making processes and are committed to making it as easy as possible for schools to make more sustainable choices.

Making a positive difference by:

- Using 100% renewable energy by 2025
- Reducing emissions in our supply chain
- Becoming a zero-waste business
- Ensuring all packaging is reusable or recyclable
- Zero deforestation in our supply chain
- Phasing out problematic plastics

Better for the planet.
Better for your budget.

People and planet are at the heart of what we do. Our huge range of sustainable education supplies will help you make better choices for your little learners, the planet and your budget.

People and planet positive play

All Kadink timber toys are crafted from FSC-certified paper and wood, so every purchase supports healthy forests and keeps our wildlife safe. With so many eco-friendly alternatives to choose from, you can make a positive impact on the planet with every purchase.

Play and learn with peace of mind

Our Kadink paint and dough are safe, non-toxic and easily washable, so your little ones can get messy and creative while developing their hand-eye coordination and fine motor skills. Each batch is tested by a chemist to guarantee they meet our product safety standards.

Supporting our local community

At Officeworks we're committed to supporting the local communities where we live and work.

Our People & Planet Positive 2025 Plan is our long-term approach to supporting our team, enhancing our connection to local communities, taking climate action, and reducing our environmental impact.

In FY2023, we gave 16,194 students a helping hand with 7,640 students supported through sponsorships and educational resources through our partnerships with The Australian Literacy and Numeracy Foundation and The Smith Family.

Together with our customers, we have raised over $5.98 million to local and national causes in FY2023 and have supported more than 5,200 small businesses through in-kind donations of products and services.
